Our 24/7 service comes to you when you need it most

Life's little mishaps happen at the most inconvenient times. Because our devices have become essential to our daily lives, you can't wait when an accident causes your phone to break. If you work or have personal responsibilities, taking time out of your day to fight Redmond traffic is more than just a hassle - it may be impossible. If one of your children drops your device in the kitchen sink, you risk losing your contacts, photos, passwords, and other information that's vital to your day-to-day life. By offering device service at any time of day or night, 365 days a year, we make it possible for you to get your device working in at little time as possible, and with the least amount of hassle.

When your device's battery breaks or your screen shatters, your day is immediately ruined. Your device is far more than just a phone, it's your connection to the rest of the world. For many people, their device also holds their lists of contacts, cherished photos, and the passwords they need to access their favorite websites.

In situations where a device must be taken into our repair shop, we will keep you informed of our progress every step of the way. Every repair we do comes with a low price guarantee, and if you get a lower estimate at another legitimate repair shop we will match it.

Every device repair job we handle comes complete with a full phone diagnostic. If there are any problems with your device, we will be able to find it. Your technician will explain your options in situations where attention is necessary.

One of the most cherished features on modern mobile devices are cameras. At the touch of a button you can capture life's fleeting moments at any time of day or night. If you break your camera lens or the camera stops working, you may think you need to buy another mobile device, but we can actually repair most of these issues, save your phone, and help save your hard-earned money.

If you own an Apple product, you own one of the best cameras available on a mobile phone. One of our iPhone mobile repair experts can come to your location and usually get your camera working in less than an hour. This is also true for Samsung and other popular mobile phone brands.

Sometimes a mobile phone breaks when it's time to buy a new device, but you still have photos and videos that you would like to recover from your old phone. In these situations our mobile repair van can come to your location and recover your lost photos and videos. We can even set you up with a new or refurbished device to replace your older phone.

iPhone Repair Specialist

Apple's iPhone continues to be one of the most widely used phones in Seattle. An iPhone repair may be necessary if you dropped your phone and the screen cracked. Another common problem we encounter is when a person gets their phone wet. While some customers are hopeful that a complete iPhone repair will be possible, others simply want to retrieve all of their personal information and photos from their iPhone.

When you bring your iPhone into our shop for service, we can usually get the job done while you wait. Not only will we have your iPhone repair done quickly, but we also guarantee the best value and top warranty. However, the truth is that other companies are trying to match our low prices.
